Once upon a time there was a small child she was raised to be in her parents image nothing less one day the little girl was playing outside which was strictly forbidden she thought that no one would catch her because her parents were at work but little did they know they were watching her on there secret cameras to see if she betrayed their trust. When the parents caught her that were furious a little while later the girl decided to go inside and study so her parents wouldn't get suspicious of her little did she know.

The next day she was in her bed resting when her parents came in her room "get up" her mother said the little girl obeyed and instantly got up "yes mother" the girl said "were you studying yesterday" she nodded her head "Lies the one thing we say you can't do you rebel against us and do it anyway!" the girl started to shiver "i- fathe-" before she could even say anything the man started to yell "pack your bags you leaving!" he yelled.

The little girl looked at her mother and she just turned away. The little girl started crying and pleading for forgiveness but it didn't work. She started packing and she looked at her desk to see her favorite plush she got for her 4th birthday. She put that in her bag and started walking down the flight of stairs.

She got in the back of the car and fastened her seat belt for a 5 year old. She was really smart. They drive to the adoption center where the girl was left with her bag.

~Time skip 4 days The girls P.O.V~

I was alone in the corner playing with my plush when the caretaker came up to me "come on honey let's go" she said putting out her hand i didn't take it because i was holding my plushies hand and pushed myself up and started walking to the front office by my second day here i memorized the whole place when i got the the office i open the door to see a woman i sit in the chair next to her and look forward.

The caretaker sits in the chair "so you want to adopt y/n" the caretaker miss.Fuyuhana said looking at the woman "yes i would" the woman said smiling "ok let me go get the papers" miss.Fuyuhana said leaving us two alone it was quiet until the lady spoke up "so whats there name" she asked pointing at my y/p "she's p/n and she 4 year old and my bestfriend" i said smiling "well it nice to meet you p/n" she said shaking p/n hand i giggle then miss.Fuyuhana comes back with the papers "ok miss.Mukuda Makizume please sign right here and here" she said pointing and specific spots after she sign them she asked her "do you want to keep her last name or change it to yours" "i'd like to keep it"

~Time skip 11 years~ (to lazy or wuteva)

I was sitting on a bus with 13 other people with the same uniform i was sitting in the far back eating a f/f popsicle staring out the window when a old lady walked in i was about to get up and offer me seat when a girl with blond hair and purple tips asked a guy with blond hair "E-excuse me sir would you be willing to give up your seat" the girl asked i spaced out for a bit until i heard the guy starting to hit on her then he started to talk about how it wrong that young people had to give up there seats for old people. That's when I got up and walked to the front "is there a problem here?" i asked glaring at the guy "yah there is a problem this girl is trying to get me to stand up for this old person and standing takes up to much energy" he said i look at the girl then back at the guy "standing does take a lot of energy which is why you should give up your seat she can barely stand up on her own".

I turned to the old lady "miss please take my seat also i want to apologies on behalf of this man" i said slightly bowing "oh no it ok i really don't mind standin-" i cut her off "please i insist" i said " aw thank you dears" the old lady said to me and the blond hair girl taking her seat "t-that thing you did it was really nice i'm kikyoun kushida i hope we can become friends" i gave her a small smile "i'm y/n l/n i would love to accept to on that offer".

~Time skip when we get to the school~

The bus comes to a stop and I get off debating if I want to wait for kikyoun well. I don't want to lose a new friend. I thought as I waited for her when she came off the bus she grabbed my hand and started running to the building "lets go!" she said while running when we got there of course.

Me and kikyoun sat together which made me a bit happy sense i made a new friend it's always been hard for me to make friends because of my social awkwardness Manabu horikita of our student council president gave us some words and a welcome which i spaced out to because the girl in front of me was sweating i tapped on the shoulder she jumped a little but i gave her my handkerchief

"here" i said holding it out she hesitantly took it and said a quiet but loud enough "thank you" for me to hear.

When the speech was done i got my schedule and a layout of the school but instead of going straight to class i had to use the bathroom so i went on my way i saw a vending machine and got a f/f popsicle and headed to class 1-D when i got there i was greeted by a lot of kids talking it was really loud i went to my seat eating my popsicle and reading a book it was called 'kenik and the 3 katanas' i was reading when i decided to look at the place to see if i know anyone and i look to my left to see that blond hair guy, i also see the black hair girl, kikyuu, and a boy with orangish brown hair with pinkish tips.

After looking at the class a bit i decided to go back to reading my book, when some guy said "listen up we should go around introducing ourselves" his hair looks cute (but that man is fine anyway back to the story) then everyone starts to agreeing then the guy with cute hair spoke up "Well i guess i'll go first then i'm Yousuke hirata but you can call me yosuke if you want" then he starts talking about how he plays sports and wanting to join the school's soccer team, next was kikyuu i went back to reading my book because she told me everything about her on the bus some time went by of us introducing us when it was the guy behind me turn "uh so um i'm Kiyotaka ayanokouji i can't wait to study with you i'll do my best to get along with you all".

Everyone was staring at him he looks uncomfortable i then stand up with my popsicle in my hand "hello class of 1-D i'm y/n l/n my favorite food to eat are popsicles and yes i know it's not a food and more of a dessert but i don't care i like cooking, baking, art, reading and programming i hope to cook for you all one day and i really hope we all could get along" i said bowing a bit then sat down yosuke then spoke up "well i'll be looking forward to the day you cook for us y/n" and also of people started agreeing which made me blush a bit.

Then some guy with red hair started to speak....more or so yell about how introductions are for grade schoolers i look out a spare book titled one page 'disliked people' another one 'mutual' and the final one 'friends' i add kikyuu to the friends page, yosuke to the mutual page, the black hair girl to the mutual page, and the red hair guy on the disliked page wow this will be fun- "alright class lets get started and find your seats" i believe that's the teacher "im Sae chabashira the homeroom teacher for 1-D" she then stated talking about how we can't change classes this is boring.

Instead of listening to her i continued to read my book then a rules book was on my desk i look up to see the teacher in front of me "miss l/n i think you would want to pay attention to what i have to say" she said then walked up to the front again i took the book and opened it to the first page "rule one you all have to live in the dorms rule two your contact outside of this building will be restricted as for your time off campus" then she started to talk about how everything we could ever need from the outside world is here and how everything you need to buy come from points and how the points are distributed to us on the first of each month and how one point is equivalent to one yen and how we all have 100,000 points to start off with and people were very surprised it is a large amount of money...large is a understatement and how they gave us that money because we are worth that much.

After some time class ended i got my y/p and stuffed her in my bag making sure nobody saw and also my book then i walked to the convenient store to buy supplies for my dorm only buy what you need and don't go over the budget and you'll be fine y/n! I thought getting a razor, basic shampoo and condition, a toothbrush and toothpaste, and a towel i went to the other isle to get my stuff when i bumped into a the same guy from my class "sorry" i said "its ok...well since we three have to sit by each other we should at least attempted to get along what's your name" he said looking at the black haired girl that's right she never got to introduce herself.

Then she finally said her name "its Suzune horikita" "well nice to meet you and suzune is a pretty name" i said still staring down at my book i was reading then a fight broke outside of the store when horikita said that is above her and how she doesn't want to interfere with it which i understand.

I didn't either so i just payed for my stuff said my goodbyes and left i went to my room to take a shower and change into my clothes i started writing the next book to one of my previous ones a memory came and i smiled a bit because the first book i ever wrote and published i made at the age of 7 and it got lots of sales and my mom well adoptive mom was so proud of me.

After a bit of writing i decided to draw without even noticing i started to draw kikyuu, suzune, and Kiyotaka it was a good drawing so i hung it up watched a couple of youtube videos (honestly i don't know what i'm doing now) looked at the time it was 8:34 so i decided to go to bed and wake up early to study and read in the morning so i put my phone on charge and went to bed.

I am too lazy to do a cover right now and the introductions will come later bye

After a few weeks go bye and i noticed people started going into cliques or groups if you must say i wasn't really in a 'group' because i like to hang out with everyone most of them were made by spending money or shopping with others so the mindset of most of our class is "we have a lot of money let's spend it!" .

Such fools i decided to go get a Popsicle if you really think about it if i ever were to go bankrupt it would be because of Popsicle's i let out a small giggle i get to the ice cream parlor and got a f/f with f/t it cost 2 points after that i started walking around until i run into someone i look up to see who i bumped into it was horikita.

"Gomenasai horikita" I said horikita offered me a hand and I took it "so what are you doing here?" i started to look around and i see a sign that says 'Student Council Office' "well i-i was wondering around and kind of got a little l-lost i'm sorr-" i got cut off by someone walking out the office that's the same guy that gave the speech at the beginning of the school i think he was the student council i think he looked at me.

"well what's your name" he asked "its y/n l/n nice to meet you sorry if i troubled you i got a little los-" "are you a friend of hers" he asked pointing at suzune "well i consider us friend but i don't know if the feelings mutual" i said slightly sweating this is getting awkward.

Suzune spoke up "class is about to start y/n let's go" she said dragging me back to class is what i assumed but went we turned the corner she stopped and said "stay away from him please for your safety ok..i wouldn't want o-one of my new friends g-getting hurt" she said while continuing to walk to class Yes new friends achieved! We then arrived at class and we took our seats (I'm getting so off track)

~Time skip to when class starts~

Governments and family i was writing down lots of notes when i looked up nobody is paying any attention..well it does make sense because some people do have the mind set that if they got here they are smart enough to pass every class such fools (you know what your going to be two faced your mind judges people bye) then the bell rung and class was over

I open my bag and see a note "meet me at the coffee place after class-kiyotaka ayanokōji" i look up and around the classroom then back down i guess he left already i put my plush in my bag and make some extra notes and start walking to the coffee place when i got there i started to look around for kiyotaka i see him kikyoun and suzune what an eventful day i guess i started to walk to the table i sat next to suzune.

"Hey y/n" kiyo (im just call kiyotaka kiyo) "why is y/n here suzune asked "i thought it would be awkward so i brought someone we are all acquainted with and that person happens to be y/n" then suzune stood up "i'm leaving" i kind of sweated did i cause this "what why" kiyo asked "well y/n and kikyuu are here so there is no reason for me to stay" then they started going back and forth so i stand up.

"hey guys lets not fight now we all are friend here" i said waving my hands in front of me i said trying to defuse the situation but i just got ignored the suzune started to go on about how the girls at the tables next to us left after they came in and class only ended a few minutes before they came "so you guys planned a set up?" it was quiet for a bit until kiyotaka spoke up "yah it was planned" then suzune said something but i didn't hear.

Next thing you know, Suzune got up and grabbed my hand "lets go y/n" she said basically dragging me "bye kiyotaka bye kikyuu!" me and suzune walked to her dorm then we just talked about school and stuff after a while i left wanting to buy things.

I was walking to the grocery store when I bumped into somebody. I need to start watching where I'm going. I was about to apologize when I heard my name being called. I looked to see if the person I bumped into was honami ichinose or as I know her as my cousin.

After a few hours that felt like minutes catching up with each other we decided to part was shit i completely forgot to get food i started to sprint to the store i debated for a bit on buying ingredients or get premade lunch i finally come to a decision to get ingredients the total came to 5439¥ (50$) it was enough to last about 2 weeks and a half. After i paid for my food i was walking to the dorms.

It was the end of the months and everybody was complaining about not getting points i was reading my book so i decided to check and apparently i got points but i didn't tell anybody because it would cause chaos i got 7,621¥ which was like 70$ dollars or something i need to talk to the teacher about this i then see the total amount of points i have is 91,274 points then our teacher came in.

Some guy asked the teacher why we didn't get points "the points have already been allotted" everyone started to whisper and most are just confused wow these people are really dumb this school should make a class F "Oh i get it through this whole month 98 people were either late or absences 391 people were on their phones and not paying any attention its really surprising how....non-smart all of you are" i said out loud trying to put it easy."y/n is it? You are correct on everything but it was 390 not 391" miss chabashira said "actually i am correct fun fact i can still keep my consciousness while sleeping" i said still reading my book.

She didn't respond. She then goes one about how we are given the points that reflect on us and how most of the class, how little to anybody were actually paying attention and how we are worth nothing now.

After class 3-5 students asked if i can hack their phones to get them more points and i said no to that because if i was to do that they wouldn't know how to think for themself after i looked around the classroom to see if miss.chabashira was here and it looked like she lifted so i went to find her after 2 minutes of looking for he i finally found her.

"Excuse me miss chabashira" she turned around "l/n what are you doing here" she said now fully facing me "i think there is an error in the system" "what do you mean by that" i showed her my phone "i got 7,621 points you said that our class didn't receive any points" she then chuckled what's so funny "here is a hint look at you other classmates work then look at yours and tell me the difference come back to me when you have"

I then started to walk to the classroom i went up to kushida and asked to see the work she did i looked at it and it was work i did in like middle school i then walk up to Yousuke and asked to see his work either there really dumb or i'm just smart after that i packed my thing and when to my dorms and pulled a f/f Popsicle out and start writing then i had a thought if i'm so pass them why am i in class 1-D...i guess there are some mystery that i can't answer on my own,After sometime i went to bed.

_____ Your P.O.V

I was sleeping when my phone started to ring ☺kikyou kushida☺
"hello?" i asked starting to get up still with a morning voice (forgot what its called but yah) "good morning y/n i was wondering if you wanted you to know we have swim class today" i thought swim class was tomorrow "they said that they needed to change the schedule today anyway i just wanted to remind you" "um yeah sure i'll be there in a couple of minutes thanks for telling me" "ok see you then y/n" "ok bye" i hung up.

I took a quick shower, brushed my teeth, and put on the school swimsuit it was a one piece with white at the sides dark blue in the middle and red straps and outline after that I was debating on the hair style so i just put it in a h/s greased my pool bag and left. Once I was at the pool I saw kiyotaka "h-hi kiyotaka". I was kind of embarrassed because some people were staring at me.

After a while of talking i went and put my bag down by a chair and went over to kiyotaka and sat next to him "hey y/n" i take out a f/f popsicle and start eating it "hey you now it's bad to eat before you swim" i nodded "i know but i don't intend to swim today" "...but y/n this is swim class" "well kiyotaka i don't see you swimming" he then let out a sigh.

"What are you groaning about" i look up and see suzune "good morning suzune" i said smiling a bit "oh nothing kiyotaka said looking back down i then see suzune looking at me "y/n its not good to eat during swim class" "why is everybody saying this like i don't know" i said and let out a sigh i put my free hand behind my back still holding my popsicle with the other one and leaned back.

"Well if you must know my genius plan is to just act like i'm too shy to swim because of the stairs i may get because of um.." I looked over at kiyotaka "my top half of the female body." I said feeling a bit proud of my little excuse. Then both kiyotaka and suzune sighed, suzune just sat by me and we started talking for a couple minutes.

We were sitting in class while miss.chabashira was um how to you say this 'light heartedly telling us how we are the first class to ever lose all of our points in less than 2 months' she was talking until Yōsuke stood up "excuse me can you tell us what the school's criteria is for gaining and losing points".

Miss.chabashira then let out a chuckle what's with this chick "you're preparing for the real world so think of what you do here is things that you do in the real world, you are expected to come and work so you can earn money or some sort of form of compensation" she then pulls out a marker "on the board i have written all of the scores held by all of the first year classes 1 point equals 1,000 private points to each student when school began each student had 1,000 collective points during the time you all were here you somehow managed to lose every point you had" i raised my hand "yes y/n" "is there a way we could possibly earn our points back".

"Of Course and if you earn more points then the following classes you would be promoted to that class for example if you earn more points then class c you guys will become class c while class c will be downgraded to class d the closest opportunity is the midterms depending on the grade you could earn up to 100 points" it gave some people hope while others were a bit unsatisfied because it was only 100 "however these are the grades from our last class as you can see all of them are complete garbage the only one who had a good grade was y/n".

"From now on anybody who receives a failing grade on any midterms or finals will be expelled immediately wow the tension in the air just became really thick.

"So if everyone doesn't pass we all are so screwed" i say with fake anime tears "that's right" suzune said, kiyotaka started talking about how we need to fix our act if we want to get the things that this school promised and how we need to push ourselves to overtake class c. "so i guess our primary goal is beating class c now" i said getting more serious "because if we can't even do that we have no hope for advancing".

kiyotaka looked at me "did you just do an impression of Katsuragi" "maybe i did maybe i didn't the world may never know" i giggled a bit "well it sounded like it...a little" he said looking back down suzune spoke up "hey i was wondering do you play sports or something" "no not at all in fact in middle school I did nothing extra-curricular" kiyotaka responded "then that doesn't add up" i said both of them now looking at me "your forearms look muscular"

"Hey there horikita" i look up to see kikyō coming out the water "do you maybe want to come swim with us" "would you please go away" suzu said then looked the other way, i pinched her arm "hey no more being rude when i'm here" she then stood up and walked away.

"I still wish i could find a way to get along with her better" kikyō said now in front of us when i'm here" "she then stood up and walked away.

"I still wish i could find a way to get along with her better" kikyō said now in front of us when Yōsuke said that we needed to get more points when the red head named sudo had a problem i guess then stormed off Yōsuke was about to go after him when i stood up and grabbed him by the shoulder "i got this" "thanks y/n".

But before that I went to the girls locker room to go dry and get changed. After I changed I went to get my bag and went to go find sudo. He shouldn't have gone to far.

I started looking for sudo when I finally found him "hey sudo wait up" he turned around "if you came here to convince me to go back i'm not going to" he said still walking "i didn't come here for that just wanted a one on one talk" we both sat on a bench "here" i said offering him my towel he looked at me and took it "thanks i guess" i guess...I JUST FUCKING SAVED YOU FROM HYPERTHERMIA "no problem anyway we all don't have to be a 'we' but if you want to change your mind and perhaps study with us here" i gave him my number "well until then" i said giving him a tip bow and walking away.

I went to my dorm took a shower and documented my day like i do everyday i draw a bit then lay on my bed watching YouTube wow life here is boring i kind of miss my family..well my adopted family that is i soon fall asleep.

Your P.O.V

I was reading my book when suzune came up to me "hey y/n do you have any plans for lunch" "nope none that i know of why?" "i was wondering if you would like to have lunch with me also i'm planning on asking ayanokōji to come to" what a rare moment i tell you the suzune horikita is asking me y/n l/n for lunch i feel so honored i stood up and grabbed both of her hands "i would be honored to accompany you on this lunch today".

After she asked ayanokōji we started heading to the cafeteria i sat next to ayanokōji and suzune sat in front of us, suzune insisted on buying our lunch "thank you for the food then but i have to ask is it ok if you pay for this i mean it very expensive" ayanokōji said "yah i mean we won't be earning any points soon based on the iq of our class".

"Yes i can assure you y/n i said you two can get what you want and i said lunch was on me" "well then thank you" i said eating my f/l slowly so i don't choke "now i want you tow to hear me out on something important" she said i look at ayanokōji than at her "what is it?" "I'm sure we all are aware that Hirata worked on a plan of action earlier" "yah" me and ayanokōji said in union "jinx you owe me f/f lice cream" he sighed "anyway continue".

"I think we all know that they formed a study group so they can all ace the test" she finished "study group?" Ayanokōji questioned "yah but 3 of them refused to join" i stated "but i just had to be my luck that the ones who refused have the lowest scores" i said taking another bit of my lunch.

"One of them is sudo right" he said "also lik and Yamauchi" they started talking about failing grades when i started to space off thinking about random things "y/n you still there" Ayanokōji said shaking me a bit "well if we don't do something they are most likely going to fail" she said "well what do you want us to do about it" "if we want to take class c we need to find a way to regain our points back" "are you saying you want to start a study group to?" he asked "yes" she responded "seriously?" "Absolutely y/n, if left with their own devices they will sink and bring us down with them".

She then goes on about how she will claw her way to class A after sometime she left not before giving us her email and number, Ayanokōji was about to go when i grabbed his wrist and pulled him back "you still owe me f/f ice cream" i said sternly "oh i completely forgot about that" we started walking to the ice cream parlor i was still holding his wrist "you know you can let go now" he said i then let go for a quick second than i grabbed his hand "just making sure you don't run off".

We got there and i ordered a f/f with y/t (or not if you don't like toppings🍡🍡) we than walk to a bench "so y/n do you really think this would work" he asked breaking the silence i took a bit of my ice cream "what do you mean" i said taking another bit "i mean the study group do you think that it will work" "well truth be told Ayanokōji i do have faith in lik and Yamauchi but sudo..not so much, so what about you do you have faith or believe that it will work" "honestly i don't know" i took another bit after that i scooped some ice cream "hey Ayanokōji open your mouth" i said "for wha-" before he could even finish i put the ice cream in his mouth.

Mission succeeded "well tell me how does it taste" he didn't respond for a while "w-well um it taste good like regular ice cream" i humed "well i taste more harder the store bought ice cream but softer than Baskin Robbins and the same texture of cold stone and haagen dazs but it also melts like Dairy Queen".(Purr    )

I look at Ayanokōji "but i suppose it does taste 'good' " "wow y/n i'm surprised you can remember all of those" he said looking at me "well i do have a pretty good memory" (couldn't be me) after that we just talked a bit followed by me giving or shoving ice cream in his mouth as he said.

"Well it was nice talking to you it would be nice to do this another time that is if you want to" he said getting up and offering me a hand "yes that would be nice anyway we should head back class is almost starting" i said throwing the now empty cup in the class as me and Him started walking back.

Ayanokōji P.O.V

Class was boring like any other day i tried asking lik, Yamauchi and sudo to join our study group but they said no so i just need to get lik and yamauchi i'll just ask y/n to help with sudo i walked back to my room and laid on the bed maybe i could use more help from someone that can get to them.

I then asked kikyō, she agreed she gave me her number and i got a phone call from horikita she said "no" then hung up i tried to call her back but she just hung up on me before i got to say anything.

The day after I asked kikyō for help we were in the library when horikita was being you know..horikita and they left.

Your P.O.V

I was going in the library to turn in a book i rented when i saw sudo,lik, and yamauchi walk out "hey guys" sudo looked at me for a second and then keep walking after i went in the library i saw horikita, kikyō, and Ayanokōji "hey umm what happened with them" i said pointing at the exist "well they got mad and stormed off" horikita said "why did they storm off" i asked they were quiet for a bit when Ayanokō slid me a piece of paper "horikita was just being herself and you know how that always ends" i let out a sigh "i knew this wasn't going to work...but i have a plan B" after explaining it to them i renewed my due date for my book and went to the grocery store.

I got soap, some ingredients, and ink after that i just started walking places until it turned night time i was about to take a right when i saw Ayanokōj "oh hey Ayanok-" before i could finish he put a hand over my mouth i then heard suzune's voice what is with this girl and wanting to be in class A if i really tried i could at least get into class B but where the fun in that.

When her brother grabbed her wrist and slammed it to the wall that when i took out my phone and started recording for evidence or blackmail if i need to he was about to hit her when Ayanokōj grabbed his wrist i placed my phone down at a angle where they wouldn't see it but it could see them.

"Ayanokōj don't" suzune said "so you were seriously about to hurt her" he said still holding his wrist "you make me sick Manabu horikita" "ah if it isn't y/n l/n hows your relationship with your real father" i ignored him i said pulling his hand off her wrist "hey suzu-" before i could finish she pulled her hand away and looked down "go away this doesn't concern you two".

That's when a fight between manabu and Ayanokōj broke out "Both of you stop it!" none of them listened to me when manabu said "oh i know who you are i headed there was a student who got 50 on all of their exams" he said fixing his tie "the other day you got a 50 on you test if i'm correct" wow who knew someone could get 50 on all there exams shocking but intriguing.

After a bit of feud he walked off i grabbed my phone and stopped recording

~Short time skip~

Me, Ayanokōj and suzune were at the vending machine. I got a f/f popsicle and sat next to suzune "i'm sorry you had to witness all of that" "it's ok. It was kind of a relief to see you acting like a normal girl" he responded "yah suzune, but you know you can open up to us even if it's just a tiny bit" i said biting my popsicle she then tched and glared at us.

I decided to walk with suzune to the doors because we were 3 rooms apart "Hey suzune" I asked "what is it y/n" "well i was wondering if you want to share your burden" she then stopped walking.

"What do you mean by that y/n" "well i know what it like to be the perfect child and to have to do everything right so your parent- i mean brother won't look down on you, so what i'm trying to say is let's make it to class A together" i said looking at her and reaching my hand out she grabbed my hand and shedded a tear "thank you y/n" she said walking to the room. After that i took a shower and went to bed for tomorrow will come and my heart will be ready for what is to come next in this new story of my life.

(Ello mello i don't play cello, hello how are you today anyway late update but its longer so your love Interest is kiyotaka ayanokōji make sure to vote but like good night/morning/afternoon i'm going to watch Eret & quackity and lets not forget purpled bye.)

Your P.O.V

I woke up around 5:53 am for a missed alarm set for 5:53 pm alarm messing up my sleep schedule! Deciding to get up anyway i walk to the shower and undress i washed my h/t, after i was done taking a shower i put my uniform on, brushed my teeth, dried my hair then styled it i went to see if there was anything in the refrigerator to eat after a while i decided to make f/b.

After I finished eating I went to the grocery store to get some food because I only have breakfast stuff in my refrigerator. I looked at the time I should get back by 6:30-ish as I was walking to the store. I started to space off until I finally got there.

I had 92,274 before now i have 84,639 i put all the food away and then started working on a volume two of a mangai made a months back before i came to school i was 4 and a half chapters in when i heard my alarm go off i put my school supplies in my f/c binder and head out of my dorm on my way out i happen to see suzune i start walking up to her.

"Good morning suzune" i said flashing a smile she turned around "oh good morning y/n" we then start talking about our study group and school in general when we finally arrived to class it was raining but it doesn't bother me i enjoy humidity it leaves people were talking and doing other stuff i was just reading and it was time that miss.Chabashira walked in we look at our results for grammar, math, chemistry, civics, English and every other class.

Thank you! Our class didn't fail. This may be the first time most of our class got higher scores, most of my classmates were screaming. I just clapped and smiled good for them they did it! Everyone started thanking Kushida. After a while I started to space out thinking about random things or what ice cream i should get to celebrate.

~After class~

Before class ended i asked kiyotaka if he wanted to join me and he said yes to as we were walking to the parlor we heard yelling sounds like sudo i take out my phone and start recording for future purposes or black mail whatever comes first sudo was about to attack when i heard a familiar voice "ok that enough" i look at the person who said it was Honami Ichinose also known is my cousin.

She then went on about how she does not support violence and how she would have to call security is they don't stop. That's when I stopped recording and put my phone in my bag. The guy with long hair looked at me. I just waved, then he smirked and walked off with his goons.

Sudo was about to make the situation more of a hassle when kiyotaka grabbed his shoulder "relax" Honami then alked up "hey sudo don't let them get you rounded up like that" he spoke up "shut your mouth" i then looked up/straight at him (he's 6ft incase you were wondering so you can decide) "he sudo that not so nice of you to say" "you don't rule me" my cousin apologize and kiyotaka tried to get him to join the study group but he refused we went on with our day as we were walking to the ice cream parlor we were talking about random stuff.

When we got there i got a f/f ice cream with y/t he just got a vanilla by this time he is uses to my giving him ice cream without his consent i started feeling sick so i went to my room and laid down for the rest of the day

~Time skip to the day before the test~

As I was walking into class kushida came up to me "hey can you help me pass these out" she said handing me half a stack of paper "sure" i said passing my half out to the left side of class while she took the right.

"Hang on everyone there something i want you all to have before you go" she handed out the test quiz and explained it to the students they all said "thank you y/n and kushida!!" "but i didn't do-" before i could finish kiyotaka but a hand over my mouth "just go with it" i tried handing it to the bus boy (the one who didn't give up his seat to the elderly women in chapter 1) "thank you sweetheart but i don't think i need to resort to such tactics" he said walking out the room this little bitc- before i could finish the thought kushida came up to me "you ok y/n" "um yeah i'm fine" she then flashed a smile "well we haven't been hanging out much so i was wondering if you want to hang out with me on the weekend" she right ever since cliques started i don't really get to talk to her as much.

"Sure that would be awesome" after that i remembered that there was a store i wanted to visit i head out of the school building and started walking to the electronic store to get a digital drawing tablet after i got that i had 82,314 points left i walk out the store and to my dorm after i got the i spent a good 2 hours sketching and then i went to bed.

Your P.O.V

As I sat in my seat it was a normal day like any other. I was talking to kushida when the Three Stooges/lik,Yamauchi, and sudo joined the conversation we talked for a while and it was pretty enjoyable until Mrs.chabashira walked in "i must say im impressed that you all bring your test scores up so much" she then grabbed a red marker "however" she drew a red line over sudos name "sudo got a failing grade" i looked over at sudo he was in pure shock "what a pity" sudo broke into a sweat "how could i have possible failed" he said shouting.

"The minimum score is 40 and as shown you received a 39" i stood up and yelled "But Mrs.Chabashira can you make an exception he was off by one point!" she sighed "im sorry l/n but the average test score is 79.6 when i divide it by 2 and round it to 40 poin it gets the minimum score to pass" after that i started to space off when i heard that sudo's expulsion notice will be sent after class.

"Are you sure there is nothing we can do to save him" "yah it can't be set in stone!" said some kid and kushida finishing it off "rules exist for a reason" i call bullshit on that! She then dismisses homeroom "You guys there something we have to do about this its just not right that sudo is getting expelled for this" that when i heard a chair move i turned around and it was ayanokōji

"Sorry i have to use the bathroom" after he left there was an announcement on the speakers

"y/n l/n can you report to the student council office i repeat y/n l/n can you report to the student council office" I didn't do anything wrong yet.

"Well i guess its time for me to be dismissed" i walked out the classroom and turned the hall to see ayanokōji and Mrs.chabashira on the rooftop talking i decided to eavesdrop on the conversation only to find out that ayanokōji was trying to buy sudo a point "well give me a number" she laughs "if you can cough up 100,000 point right here and now then you have a deal" "that just crul Mrs.chabashira" i know he has around 61,000 points so do i want to help sudo or not i mean for a queen to take another queen a pawn must be sacrifice but then again if a pawn can push its way forward it can become useful is many ways.

Then from the other door someone speaks up "then i'll help cover it" i look over and its suzune i let out a sigh and walk out "i guess i will to" i said raising my hand so its at the same level of my head (basically put your hand next to your head space your hand from your head sorry im not good at explaining things) "we don't know the punishment for losing one of our classmates might be high" i then stepped in "And with sudo we could have certain advantages or not but then again its not my place to judge"

I heard a faint "y/n, horikita" from ayanokōji then i hear a light chuckle from Mrs.chabashira "I thought that you people might keep me on my toes very well then i'll sell you the test point and you can tell him you saved him i guess he won't be expelled after all" she then lit up a cigarette "Just so you know never has a D student advance, do you think you'll be the first" horikita spoke up "i can't speak for them but i will get to class A" Mrs.chabashira looked at me "and you miss l/n" i shrugged "Depend i do find this class interesting so i have no reason to move but if there is a opportunity i will probably take it" "also on the topic of you y/n don't you have to go to the Student Council office?" dammit i forgot about that! I then started speed walking to the student council office.

When i got there i knocked on the door "hello" i then heard a male voice "Come in" i walked into then i saw Manabu horikita "you called me" "yes i did please sit also your 6 minutes late" i sat down "yah got a little distracted anyway what do you need" "well let me get straight to the point i want you in class A" "and why is that?" "Well i sure that you are aware that you have different work than the others in you class""yes i am and what about it" "well you only ever get good test scores and i find it interesting".

I put my hand on the table "if i really wanted to go in class A i could work hard or use the easy way" his eyebrow raise "whats the easy way" i showed him a clip of the video i recorded last night of him almost hitting suzune "hm i see your reputation doesn't dec you" i stand up "well it was nice talking to you while it lasted but i need to go bye bye~" i said walking out

I then get a massage from Kushida 'Come to ayanokōji room asap'. I then started walking when I got there food and snacks were all over the floor but one thing caught my eye f/f ice cream popsicles! I took a seat in front of Kushida "so what's happening?" "we are throwing a party because sudo passed!" "oh ok congrats sudo" i then took a f/f popsicle and started eating it Yamauch was about to take one but i slapped his hand away "no" i said pulling the box next to me.

After some time ayanokōji and horikita showed up and after the party me and Kushida stayed to help clean up i was about to leave when i heard ayanokōji say "hey y/n why did the student council call you" he said tying the trash bag "oh they just wanted to move me up to class A" after that was some silence "well did you accept?" tying my bag "nope" "why?" "well as i said on the rooftop i do find this class interesting" i then gave him my last popsicle "here consider it a thanks for letting us stay in your room" he looked at me "um yeah no problem" "hey this you phone" i said pointing at a phone on his bed "looks like Kushida left her phone"

"You should probably return it" he grabbed the phone "yah i should goodnig-" i cut him off by giving him a kiss on the cheek "goodnight ayanokōji" i said waving while walking out his room when i get there i take a shower change and go to bed today was an eventful day...

Hey um yah sorry for not uploading last week and sorry for my suckish attempt at romance and yah have a good night/afternoon/day and may god bless you all bye bye

Honami ichinose P.O.V

I walk into class expecting the same old boring but eventful class only to be met with a new teacher with her head down on the desk. I slowly walk up to the desk. I take my pen and start to poke her hair "hello class" it speaks i then walk back to my seat and get settled.

"Let's all try and have a nice day shall we" she said lifting her head up. She had pink eyes and was sweating?, a student spoke up "ew teacher you reek of alcohol" they said while covering up their nose i couldn't really smell it because i was sitting all the way in the back i could smell a faint scent of it tho.

"Yah i had gone a little overboard last night" she said putting her head back down hangovers she then stood up fast and slammed her hand on the white-board which startled me a bit "so class it time to announce all the class point for this mont-" before she cold finish she put her hand over her mouth like she was about to throw up.

All the class stood up in worry and concern "hey miss are you alright!?" i said genuinely worried "all your points will be distributed to you tomorrow" she said in a muffled voice due to her hand being over her mouth"

Some of the girls came up to make and squeezed me in a hug

Your P.O.V

I was about to go to into the elevator when my cousin Honami called me "y/n over here" she said signaling for me to come over "hey Honami" i said walking over to her "so y/n how have you been i haven't seen you that recently" "just been doing the same old same old" we continue to talk as we both enter the elevator as we hit the bottom and i see kushida.

"Good morning kushida" both me and Honami said "Honami y/n good morning" "wow kushida is this your new boyfriend" (by wilbur soot on all platforms such a good song) i look to her right to see ayanokōji "g-good morning ayanokōji" "good morning y/n" we then head to class

~Time skip~

"There had been an issue the points for all the first years had been delayed" after mrs.chabashira said that the class broke into mutters "are you kidding me" "well are we going to be compensated in some way for the schools screw up" lik and Yamauch said "well i'm just a teacher so there nothing i can do about the rest assure that when we clear the issue you will all get your points that is if you still have any" well i guess we aren't getting our points till soon.

After class I decided to hang out with Kushida. We decided to just hang out until the day was over. I had 82,314 minus the 33,333 points I had to pay for sudo's test point so now I should have...48,981 points left.

We started walking to the grocery store because Kushida wanted to make a cake to boost everyone's spirit. On the way i saw Ayanokōji and Honami in an alleyway with her holding a love note?! The betrayal- "hey y/n are you alright?" Kushida said looking a little worried "y-yah if fine all good" i said smiling and sweatdropping a bit.

We walk into the store and after a little time of if we should get vanilla cake or f/f/c we decided to get both with f/f we went to the kitchen in Kushida room and started making a two layer cake with f/f after it was done we decided to split the cake she delivers 13 and i deliver 12 but i took an extra slice just incase horikita turns down Kushida's offer.

I went to my dorm to find Yamauchi and Sudo there to "hi guys!" I said smiling "hey y/n!" "hey y/n" "sup" i walk into the door "so i know everyone is a bit down because of the point so me and Kushida decided to bake a cake i said giving them all a slice they thanked me then i left.

After i delivered most of my half i then make my way to Ayanokōji dorm and knock on the door i was a little nervous because of the incident that happened yesterday i swear my brain was on autopilot- "oh hey y/n" i jumped a bit because i wasn't really paying attention "h-hey Ayanokōji" he invited me in and i sat on his bed "so y/n about yesterday-" "yah i know it was dumb my brain was on auto-" i was cut off by Ayanokōji "yah its fine i was actually going to ask if you wanted to-" he was cut off by a knock on the door he opens it and it revealed Kushida "oh um hey Kushida".

"Oh wait sorry i got the wrong door my bad" she looked over his shoulder to see me "oh y/n did you give him his cake yet?" i love you Kushida but whyyy Ayanokōji was probably going to ask me to be his wife and move into a house and have kids and adopt a pet! "Oh yah sorry got a little off track" i said secretly annoyed i gave him the cake me and Kushida started walking down the halls "hey Kushida i'm going to go to horikita room if thats ok with you" "yah its fine by y/n i'll see you tomorrow!" she said, waving at me.

I head to horikita's room after a while she answers the door we talked for a while and i handed her the cake and left to go back to my room when i got there i spent 3 minutes debating on if i should call Ayanokōji and ends out i did "hey Ayanokōji" "oh hey y/n" "so i was wondering what did you want to say before Kushida knocked on the door?" "oh well i-i was going to ask you if you wanted to go out for lunch or something" "so like a date?" "kind of" "ok just tell me the time and date and i will be there" "good night y/n" "good night mr.kiyotaka" i said while hanging up.

I took a shower and got dressed into my f/c nightgown, brushed my h/c hair and went to bed.

Hey so i took a long brake and um yah i'll try and update more often but like

Your P.O.V

The next morning I was a bit late for class as I was walking down the hallway. I heard shouting and yelling and it seems to be coming from our class what's going on? I see two girls and sudo arguing "Hey guys what's going on-" that's when the bell rang and we all took our seat when mrs.chabashira came in and organized her papers.

"Some class C students has filled a report on sudo they claimed after practice that he attacked them with no motive they are claiming trauma" sudo slammed his fist on the table trying to defend himself saying that it was self-defence Mrs.Chabashira said that if he had any witnesses it would be easier to justify his statement.

Kushida stood up and asked if there was any witnesses of course i was and i was about to raise my hand until i realized that this would be opportunity for the class, the class was silent until the blond asshole (you know the one on the bus) spoke up "maybe it would have been better off if you didn't pass" he said twisting his hair with his fingers "and people might have defended you..if you were pretty" he said looking into his hand-held mirror.

Sudo stood up and started to yell "sudo clam down" "yah its not making your case any better" me and lik said mrs.Chabashira spoke up "one week from today we will all hold a group discussion class-C and the student council will attend depending on how things go you will may asked to forfeit points and sudo will be facing other consequences.

The everyone started talking about sudo Yousuke then spoke up (you know Yousuke the finest man in COTE and my future husband yah him) "i think we all should come together and find witnesses that saw the fight" most the boys and all the girls agreed who humans could switch up so fast i stood up "i love you all but im not in the mood to play detective on some wild-geese chase even if there was someone who knew they probably would want some sort of compensation and that's something none of use can afford to loss i mean over the last 2 months we earned under 100 points" i said while packing my stuff and leaving besides i had joined my school's track team so it is a valid excuse.

I went to the locker rooms changed and left

Horikita P.O.V

"What do you mean by that?" "i have video proof" she said looking down and going back to reading her book "well why didn't you say something" "for the simple fact that he is wasting time i mean he fails his test now he is involved in a possible trial that could end up with him gone and us losing money if you think about it with him gone we could possible move up" she bookmarked and closed her book "but i do have good intentions by doing this it may led to our class evolving into a caterpillar altho i would be willing to give the video for a price of course" "how much?" i said while sipping my tea she twirled a section of her H/C between her fingers "50,000 deal or no deal" "i'll see what i can do" she left after that.

Your P.O.V

Today was a Sunday so I didn't have school today I decided that I wouldn't go out today. I had bought a mini fridge for occasions like this I looked in there there were different kinds of popsicles and a few ice creams one of my favorites being f/f why do I have such a unhealthy obsession with these things... oh yah I remember

~FLASHBACK TO WHEN YOU WAS 5~

It had been 6 months sense miss.Muku- I mean mom adopted me and it has been the best 6 months of my life I'm not forced to do work and study and she spends time with me unlike my biological mother and father they were always out partying or when they were home they discussed business ideas.

Me and mommy were walking to auntie Ichinose's house me and my cousin Honami were going to have a sleepover I was very excited swinging my hand that was intertwined with mommy's and with my other hand I was holding my y/p p/n they are my bestest friend in the whole world!.

I believe that p/n was sent from f/p and is on a mission to gather the greatest space crew there is but right now it's only me p/n and mr.Pinecone but he's not much of a talker.

As we arrived mommy knocked on the door and auntie answer "hi y/n and hello there p/n" "Hi auntie p/n says hi to!" I said waving p/n hand she welcome us in and Honami saw me she was one year older then me so in someway I saw her as a big sis then a cousin.

"Honami!" "Y/n!" We both tackled each other into a hug "easy you two" mommy said but auntie responded before we could say anything "kids will be kids Makizume I remember when we were like that" they both let out a giggle.

Honami lead me to her room we played with some toys she had got as we were playing auntie came in "dinner time you two" "ok" we both start putting our toys away we run to the dining table sitting next to each other.

We had f/f it was really really good "Desert time!" mommy pulled out two bowls and a container of f/f ice cream "yeah ice cream!" Honami said standing on her chair bouncing.

"Ice cream?" I repeated "you never had ice cream before!" She said looking like she saw a ghostie "no...is it goo-" "yah it's good it's like the best thing this world has to offer!"

Mommy placed two bowls in front of us I pick up my spoon as my hand was hovering over it I felt coldness I pick up a bit "go on y/n try it" my mother encouraged me put it I'm my mouth THIS IS THE BEST THING EVER CREATED I then take another and start eating it like it would suddenly grow legs and walk away.

"Slow down y/n you might choke" my auntie let out a snicker is low down a bit but not enough to stop me from choke that's when it happened I felt a sudden freezing pain In my head I grabbed my hair and started rolling on the ground.

"mommy my head hurt" I wined "that's what you get for eating to fast no you got a brain freeze" all them started laughing "it's not funny!" "Come here y/n" mommy said I walk to my mom and she picks me up and started Massaging my scalp it started to go away a bit.

"Well it's time for you two go to bed" auntie says we walk to the beds and mommy tucked me in and kissed me goodnight and turned on the star nightlight me and Honami went to bed eventually after talking about f/s for a bit

(Hey this is just a filler chapter just for a little bam bam if you know what I'm saying anyway I hope you liked it see y'all later also I didn't proof read it I just wanted to post something)

||Date night with ayanokōji. Part 2||-Abbreviations

Y/s - your shoes

Y/o - your outfit

K/g -kiyotaka's gift

F/p- food place

F/F - favorite food

Your pov

5:30! It was currently 5:26 and I still had to decide what shoes to wear. I decided to just put on some y/s to go with my y/o. I did wake up late because me and kushida decided to binge PEN15 last night which was definitely a bad idea.

I took the elevator to meet ayanokoji at the cafe nearby, i wonder if he's already there i thought rushing trying not to be super late if he was there i see him sitting at a table using his phone "hey kiyo sorry for being late" i said smiling a bit "it's fine if anything i came early just incase" i looked over his shoulder to see what he was doing.

"We're on a date kiyo don't you think that you should take a break from the sudo case" i said with a tiny frown as school matters was interfering with our date " oh uh sorry about that just really need to...actually let's not talk about that right now" he said powering off his phone and putting it in his pocket.

We started waking to AAO (one of my favorites stores) after that we went to more stores after store after stores we were carrying alot of bags most of them being mine, i wanted to get kiyotaka something because most of the stuff that was mine he bought we walked into a store that had a lot of Stationery, plushies, jewelry, and other stuff i decided to get him a k/g i asked the employe to wrap it that was an extra 3 dollars but if it's from kiyo it's worth it.

I placed the gift in my bag and I walked out the store "what took you so long" he asked standing up from the benche and i tried to think of the best excuse "my um.. my card was declining!" I said proudly of my wonderful excuse "oh ok lets go" we decided to drop the bags off at my dorm and then go to eat. I placed the bags down near my closet and the gift at the desk near my room and headed back out. As we were walking to get to eat I felt something warm on my hand. I looked down to see Kiyo's hand in mine "You don't mind, do you" he asked, kind of looking away.

"Yah its fine" i said with a small blush ITS FINALLY HAPPENING AHHHHHHHHHHHHH after i finished fangirling and composing myself we finally arrived to f/p i got a f/f after our food arrived we ate and talk about interest and hobbies.

Back at the dorms

Kiyotaka insisted on walking me back home and who would i be to pass up an offer on geting to hold his hand more and to be around him when we arrived at the dorm i wanted to ask him to stay but i didn't wanna be annoying after unlocking my door we turn to each other to to bid the other good night because it was currently 7:37 "i uh got you something he said pulling out a box and opening it i saw two of what looks to be promise rings.

"kiyotaka you didn't have to" i said almost about to cry as he puts it on my ring finger "i know i just wanted to give you something special" "thank you" i say but i just remembered i got him something " kiyo sit still i'll be right back" i said running to my room and grabbing his gift and rushing back to the door.

"It's not much but it's something" I say as he carefully unwrapped the gift not wanting to tear the wrapping paper after he finally unwrapped it "do you like it?" i asked not being able to read his facial expression "i love it thank you"

We stood there for a minute in awkward silence until we both decided to speak up "thanks for everything kiyo" i said "yah i really enjoy spending time with you" making a rational decision i kissed his cheek "um kiyotaka i was wondering if you wanted to stay over because we don't have school tomorrow" i said after building up my confidence "oh yeah sure let me get some clothes and i'll be over in a bit" he said slightly stuttering "ok bye kiyo see ya in a bit" i said closing the door.

Today was a good day

(look at me being productive for once also happy late black history month fun fact im nigerian born in nigeria moved when i was 2 🤖👍📱)

|Pool Fun-ABBREVIATION|

f/s = Favorite scent

f/c = favorite color

h/t = hair type

F/a = favorite animal

F/n = flottie name

(skipping the whole arguments and meeting about the sudo thing i didn't proof read this)

6 am, Monday morning I woke up earlier than my alarm to get ready. We didn't have school because summer break had started so the class decided we should have a pool day which I agreed to . I decided to do a new hairstyle I found on pintrest i took a shower with my f/s soap, after I got out of the shower I did my usual stuff, i packed a f/c duffle bag with a towel, my swimsuit, sunscreen, and my phone and other stuff.

After I got out of the shower I went to put on my outer wear and meet up with suzune, Ayanokōji. kushida and sakura "hey y/n over here" kushida said waving her hand ecstatically i wave back with a small smile i stand between suzune and kiyotaka because sakura and kushida were in there own little world of conversation.

I was staring at a bird it was a yellowish color with black and white feathering on its wings it was truly a sight to behold "i see a goldfinch caught your eye a vibrant one at that" K

they represent joy, enthusiasm, positivity, and persistence kinda reminds me of you, that is if you care about that sort of stuff!" he said with a small pink hue on his cheeks

"I do Ayanokōji it's really intriguing" i said giving him a small smile "and i think that (outfit color) looks very good on you...have i said too much" he said hanging his head down "thank you Ayanokōji" i said giving him a small kiss on the cheek

The group had random conversations until the stars of the show lik, sudo and Yamauchi showed up "hey guys sorry we were late. We all just overslept, can you believe it" sakura, me, and suzu noticed something strange because they were coming from the direction of the pool when sakura called them out they all started to overlap when sudo tells us to move on.

As we were walking we saw honami and her friends and decided to walk with them because they were heading to the pool too because today is the last day we would be able to go all the girls go in the locker room to change

I walked into a stall to change into my (bathing suit details) bathing suit i put on my f/c slippers and walk out "wow y/n you look so pretty in that" sakura said "y/n i'm so obsessed with the design where'd you get it" kushida said "oh i got it from (store name)" "i'll take note of that" "y/n" suzu said walking up to me "you h/t suit your swimwear i like it" " aww thank you guy you all are so sweet"

Me and the girls walked outside with our swim suit "her y/n" ayanakoji said with a noticeable blush as he draped his jacket over me "thank you?" i said as sudo once again rushed us to the volleyball court

There was a long line to the bathroom that we questioned than lik started to say "that there's nothing going on and we need to win" there is something most definitely going on here so many things happen after that it was getting kinda hard to sum suzu gave an emotional speech some people even cried up it was currently 7:27 almost everyone left except a few we were all in the pool but not suzu and ayanakoji i was on a f/a floatie.

When ayanokoji pushed suzu in the pool and suzu later pulled him in everyone was play while i was still on F/n and yes i named it today was fun its times like this that you should hold on to the mos-

LIK YAMAUCH SUDOOOOO i said trying my best to chase after them as i was now in the water
